ELIZABETH ANNE NUNAN (ANNE)

Born 30 November 1938 in Hamilton. Eldest daughter of Jack & Jessie Dalton. Sister to Kaye Tandy. The family lived on Condah Swamp until the house was relocated to "Cornforth" after floods. She attended Wallacedale North State School. From 11, she boarded at Genazzano Girl's College, Kew. She attended Geelong Teacher's College and was then posted to Braxholme, where she met school principal, Terry Nunan. Terry and Anne were married on 9th January 1960 at St Mary's Church, Hamilton. They had five children: Sheryl, John, and Anthony (born in Eildon), Keryn (born in Croydon), and Wendy (born in Lilydale). Anne lived at Ballarat Road, Hamilton, for 43 years before moving to Cross St in 2013 after Terry's passing. Anne was a teacher at Patterson Park Kindergarten and Mulleraterong Special School, a boarding mistress at Monivae, and had her own floral business. Anne passed away peacefully in Geelong Hospital on 30 September 2026, surrounded by family and friends.
