

The Glory Beyond

We cannot see what lies outside our little patch of light. We cannot grasp the things beyond our hearing and our sight . . . We can't discern the shining souls of those we call the dead, walking on the road with us, a few short steps ahead.

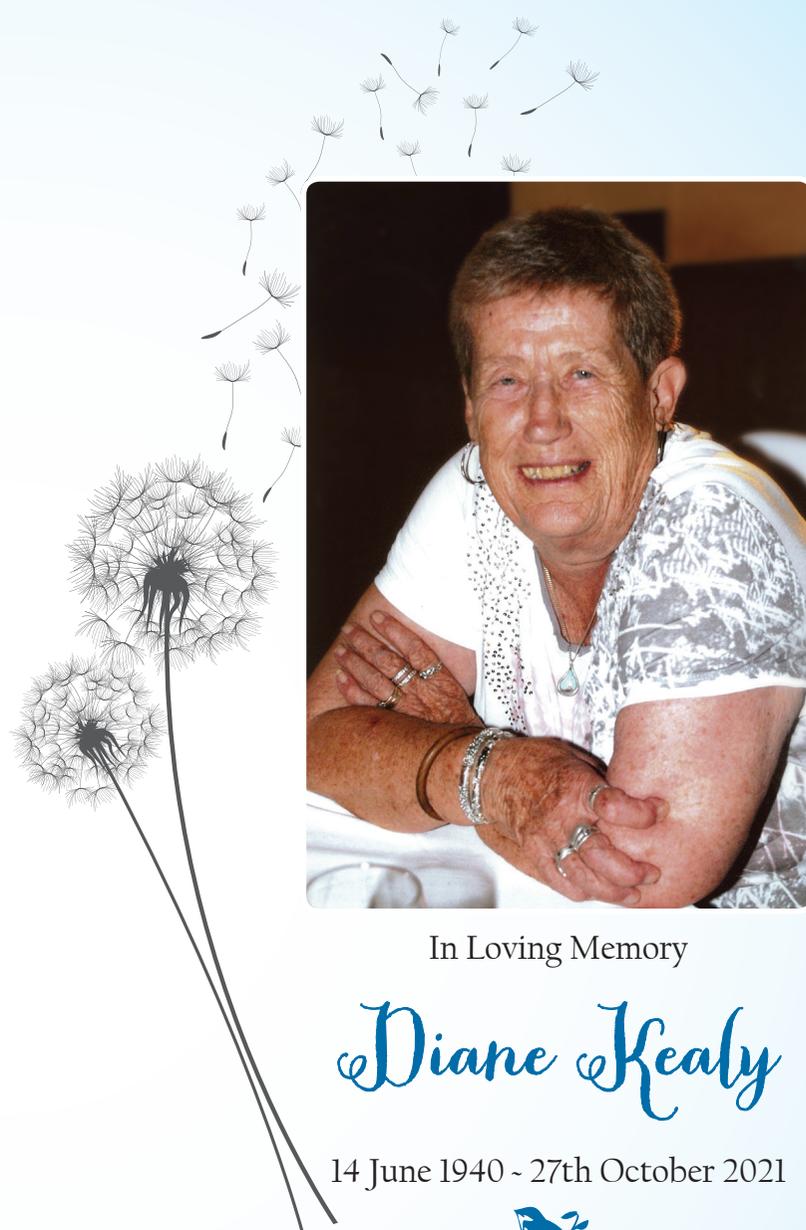

One must go, and one be left. Ask not, "Why should it be?" We cannot hope to understand so deep a mystery . . . Life and Death march hand in hand and Love must bear its cross. We cannot have the rapture and escape the pain and loss.

Mourn not the beloved ones whom God has called away. In his own good time, we'll meet again, somewhere, someday . . . Going on in front of us beyond our range of view – they walk in glory out towards horizons bright and new.

The family would like to thank you for your support, condolence and participation in the celebration of Diane's life.

Please join us to share stories and memories over light refreshments at Alexandra House, 134 Brown Street, Hamilton.

If flowers grow in heaven,
 Then pick a bunch for us
 Then place them in our mother's arms
 And tell her they're from us
 Tell her that we love and miss her
 And when she turns to smile
 Place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while.
